Local security guide - Carlingford NSW 2118 - North-west Sydney, City of Parramatta

About Carlingford

Carlingford is about 20 km north-west of the Sydney CBD.

Carlingford is a family suburb between Parramatta and the Hills District, with the Carlingford Court shopping centre and the northern terminus of the Parramatta Light Rail. At the 2021 Census, 28,044 people lived in Carlingford in about 9,101 occupied homes: 58% separate houses, 12% townhouses or semi-detached homes and 29% apartments, and 33% of homes were rented.

Housing and local context

Housing stock: Brick family homes from the 1960s to the 1980s, townhouses and villas, and apartments near the light rail and shops.

Carlingford's streets have brick family homes built from the 1960s to the 1980s on sloping blocks, many with pools and back yards reached by side paths. Townhouses, villas and apartments have been added near Carlingford Court and the light rail stop. Many homes back onto bushland reserves and creek lines.

Common security concerns in Carlingford

- Cars in driveways and garage remotes
- Homes backing onto bushland
- Car parks in newer apartment buildings

Local tip: Cars, keys and garage remotes

About 57% of Carlingford households had two or more cars at the 2021 Census. Lock every car, including in your own driveway, keep keys and garage remotes inside and away from doors and windows, and point a camera at the driveway. For apartments near the light rail, check the car park gate closes fully behind each car.

Before you hire: checklist

- Look up the licence number on the relevant state regulator register and confirm it is current.
- Check the ABN on the Australian Business Register (abr.business.gov.au).
- Hardwired 240V work needs a licensed electrician; in-wall data cabling needs an ACMA-registered cabler.
- For guards and patrols, confirm both the firm licence and each attending officer's licence.
- Get at least three written quotes listing camera models, recorder storage and warranty.
- Aim cameras at your own property and consider disabling audio on cameras facing shared areas.
