About Wanniassa

Wanniassa is about 15 km south of Canberra City.

Wanniassa is an established Tuggeranong district suburb, built mostly in the 1970s and 1980s, with local shops, schools and Wanniassa Hills Nature Reserve on its edge. At the 2021 Census, 7,885 people lived in Wanniassa in about 2,897 occupied homes: 90% separate houses, 9% townhouses or semi-detached homes and almost no apartments, and 21% of homes were rented.

Housing and local context

Housing stock: Brick family homes from the 1970s and 1980s, almost all separate houses.

Wanniassa's streets have brick family homes from the 1970s and 1980s on generous blocks, with carports or garages, sliding doors onto back yards, and some homes backing onto Wanniassa Hills Nature Reserve. About 36% of homes were owned outright at the 2021 Census.

Common security concerns in Wanniassa

- Sliding doors onto back yards
- Homes backing onto the nature reserve
- Original locks in older homes

Local tip: Sliding doors and back yards

About 90% of Wanniassa's homes were separate houses at the 2021 Census, many with sliding doors onto back yards that can't be seen from the street. A lock or bar on sliding doors, keyed window locks, and a sensor light and camera over the back yard make a real difference.

Before you hire: checklist

- Look up the licence number on the relevant state regulator register and confirm it is current.
- Check the ABN on the Australian Business Register (abr.business.gov.au).
- Hardwired 240V work needs a licensed electrician; in-wall data cabling needs an ACMA-registered cabler.
- For guards and patrols, confirm both the firm licence and each attending officer's licence.
- Get at least three written quotes listing camera models, recorder storage and warranty.
- Aim cameras at your own property and consider disabling audio on cameras facing shared areas.
